BEAUTIFY HOME GROUNDS AT A SMALL EXPENSE

HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS IN VALUE MAY BE ADDED TO
THE FARM BY THE EXPENDI-TURE OF A FEW DOLLARS—
INTERESTING LECTURE, ILLU-STRATED BY COLORED SLIDES, GIVEN TUESDAY NIGHT.

LAST DAY SHORT COURSE

With some of the finest colored antenn slides to be found in the country, Mr. Durham last night at the Short Course, illustrated the principles of making a farm more valuable through simple beautification methods. Pictures were shown of places where the expenditure of a few dollars in cleaning up fences, planting shrubs and trees has added hundreds of dollars to the value of farms.
Purdue University now has a distinct division for farm home improvement which has been included in the agricultural work of the institution.
The new work is the result of insistent demand from the people of the state for instruction in landscape beautification. It was announced at the lecture last night that aid from the institution would be given free of charge to a limited number of persons in each community.

The lecture was preceded by a fifteen minute concert given by Prof.

H. J. Barnum and two assistants from the DePauw School of Music.
The program consisted Hawaiian music and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

THE DAIRY FARM PROFITS CAN EASILY BE DOUBLED

The last day's program in the men's department of the Farmers' Short Course opened with a lecture on "Profitable Dairy Cows," by W. O.
Mills.

The profits on the average dairy farm can easily be doubled, said Mr.
Mills, as the cost of feeding materials rises there is a greater need of careful attention to cost of production.
Better cows, better methods and better dairy men have most to do with increasing the profits.
Cows vary much as to the cost of their product. This variation can be seen even among the members of a relatively well bred herd. The dairy cow uses up large quantities of farm products such as grain, hay and silage. What does she give you for them, and for your work? Does the cow give you market price or much more than market price or does she give much less than market price for the corn, hay, etc., she consumes? A town has two elevators. One pays a cent a bushel more than the other for grain. What farmer would knowingly sell his grain to the one paying the lowest price? Yet farmers often keep cows that pay 25 cents a bushel for grain, while others in the same herd, or others that can be obtained at reasonable prices, will pay 75 cents as the difference in prices at the elevators, but there is a difference. Careful handling, careful record keeping is necessary, so as to avoid the unprofitable cows. Weed out the boarders, use good pure bred bulls of one of the dairy herds. The pure bred bull is of great importance.

Haphazard breeding will never get us far in the improvement of our dairy cows. Select a dairy breed and stay with it. Cross breeding defeats the very purpose for which breeds have been established.

Larger profits then are going to come by keeping individual cow records, by the use of the pure bred bull, by proper care and handling, and in addition by the sale of surplus stock from the good herd.

Indiana needs better cows more than it needs more cows.

PREACHER WHO STOLE AUTO IS TAKEN TO REFORMATORY

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Jan. 4.—The Rev. Benjamin F. Clifton, former Methodist pastor at Kingman and Salem in Fountain county, received an indeterminate sentence of one to fourteen years in the Indiana Reformatory this afternoon. Clifton was found guilty December 23 of the theft of Thomas Harwood's automobile. In the sensational two weeks' trial in the Montgomery Circuit court the preacher based his defense on insanity. Motion for a new trial was waived. He was taken to Jeffersonville this afternoon by Sheriff Prewitt.
The Rev. Clifton formerly attended DePauw University.

Miss Edith Zaring, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Zaring of Manhattan and friends and relatives in this city during the Christmas vacation, has returned to Menominee, Wis. where she is attending the Marshall School of Domestic Science.

SIXTEEN REASONS ARE GIVEN IN DEMURRER

Evan B. Stotsenberg, Attorney General, who is representing the members of the State Tax Commission, the Secretary of State, Auditor of State, C.
L. Airhart and H. H. Runyan, in the suit filed by the Board of County Commissioners of Putnam County, to compel the Auditor to place the Greencastle fraternity house properties upon the tax duplicates, has filed a demurrer to the complaint of C. C.
Gillen, county attorney.

The demurrer alleges that the ruling of the State Tax Commission is final and that the court has no jurisdiction in the case. It further states that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute cause for action and says that there is a defect in the naming of the defendants in the case.

In enumerating on these basic reasons, the Attorney General gives sixteen reasons why the complaint is not good. T. T. Moore, who is representing the Beta Theta Phi and Phi Delta Theta fraternities in the case, filed the demurrer, which had been forwarded to him by the Attorney General.

JOHN MALONEY TAKES UP DUTIES OF MARSHAL TODAY

John Maloney Wednesday began his duties as city marshal. Mr. Maloney succeeds John W. Cooper, resigned.
Mr. Cooper was appointed two years ago by Mayor Walter Cooper, but because of his health and business affairs, was forced to resign. The resignation which was given the mayor several days ago became effective on Wednesday.

The Central Trust Co. report the sale of the S. P. Vaughan farm, consisting 80 acres, to Fred Vaughan for a consideration of $7,500.

BAINBRIDGE YOUNG FOLKS MARRIED IN GREENCASTLE

The marriage of Miss Eula Lein-berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leinberger of Bainbridge, and A. L.
Proffitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L.
Proffitt of New Ross, was solemnized
at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. E.
Bash on south Bloomington street in this city Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt will reside in Bainbridge where Mr. Proffitt is in the furniture and undertaking business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Proffitt are well known through the county. Mrs.
Proffitt is a niece of Edward Coffman of this city.

NEW SUITS FILED IN PUTNAM CIRCUIT COURT

Bert J. Prater & Co., has filed suit in the Putnam Circuit Court against Alpheus Hurst and George Hurst, who conducted a business here under the name of the Hurst Flour & Feed Co., to collect an account due the firm amounting to $56.10. Attorney fees and interest, in all amounting to $100, is asked in the suit. T. C. Grooms and Moore & Moore are attorneys for the plaintiff.

M. Blumberg has filed a suit in the Putnam County Court on a chattel mortgage. The suit names Joseph S.
Johnson, Charley Eiteljorge and William Brown as defendants. Blumberg alleges that he took a chattel mortgage on stock and personal property to secure a debt of $215, which Johnson owed him. He states that Mr.
Eiteljorge has been appointed receiver for Mr. Johnson and has in his possession the stock on which the chattel mortgage was given. Mr.
Brown, the complaint says, is keeping the stock for Mr. Eiteljorge. Judgment for $265 is asked in the suit.
Theodore Crawley represents Mr.
Blumberg.

Edgar Erwin, son of Mr. and Mrs.
S. W. Erwin, of this city, left Tuesday morning for Terre Haute where he will enlist in the United States army.
Mr. Erwin recently was discharged, his time of enlistment having expired. Since then he has been staying with his parents in this city. Mr.
Erwin said this morning that he liked the army life and that if stationed at a place he liked he probably would enlist for another four years. Mr.
Erwin was formerly stationed at Brownsville, Texas, and most likely will be returned to that place.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Barnett, died Friday at the home of its parents about three miles north of this city in Monroe township.
Funeral was held on Sunday. Burial was in the Long Branch cemetery.

PURDUE EXPERT BUYS LAND FOR APPLE ORCHARD

PROF. C. B. DURHAM, OF THE HORTICULTURAL DEPART-MENT OF PURDUE UNIVERSI-TY, WHO IS HERE THIS WEEK
ASSISTING IN THE SHORT COURSE WORK, PURCHASES
27½ ACRE TRACT.

BELIEVES IN PUTNAM CO.

Believing that Putnam county has the best future of any county in the state as an apple producing county, Prof. C. B. Durham, of the Horticultural Department of the Purdue University Extension Department, has closed a deal for the purchase of the Coleman cottage property, just east of town, and 26 acres adjoining the Coleman property.

Prof. Durham at once will begin work at putting out an orchard and intends within the next few years to locate permanently in Greencastle. Mr.
Frost, his father-in-law, will come here next spring from Dayton, Ohio, to take charge of the newly purchased place.

The consideration in the deal was $4,500. The Coleman cottage place contains one and a half acres. The 26 acres adjoining was owned by Mrs.
Elizabeth O'Hair. The Central Trust
Co. was agent in the deal.

Mr. Durham has had ample opportunity to investigate Putnam county's apple industry. For many months he has been coming to Greencastle, having been sent here several times by Purdue to give orchard demonstrations. From the first he was impressed by the future of Putnam county as an apple producing county and as he intended ultimately to go into the orchard business he could find no place which he believed had as bright a future as Putnam county. His decision to locate in this county will be a big boost to the apple industry in the county as he is a recognized authority on horticulture.

The Rev. Alfred D. Merrell, of Crawfordsville, who has been selected as pastor of the First Baptist church of this town, preached his opening service Sunday. Mr. Merrell, who now resides in Crawfordsville, is arranging to move his family to this city as soon as he can make arrangements. It may be that the family will not come to Greencastle until after the school year closes as he has a son in Wabash College and two daughters in the Crawfordsville city schools.

Glenn Lyon, son of Mr. and Mrs.
F. M. Lyon of this city, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis Friday afternoon, is reported doing very nicely.

Mr. John I. Coss of Greencastle, is visiting in the city for a few days.— Crawfordsville Review.—Mr. Coss is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coss of this city and resides in New York.
He has been visiting his parents here.

KIDNEY MEDICINE DISSOLVES GRAVEL STONES

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root sells well with us because it invariably produces good results in Kidney, Liver and Bladder troubles. We sold a dollar bottle to one of the inmates of our Soldiers' Home near here, and after using it he brought in about one dozen gravel stones some as large as a pea, which he had passed. He states that he obtained wonderful relief from the use of Swamp-Root.

Personally appeared before me this 28th of July, 1909, Ernest A. Brown, of the Brown Drug Co., who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

NO, TEDDY IS NOT FOR FAIRBANKS

REPORT THAT FORMER BULL MOOSE CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT IS FAVORABLE TO CANDIDACY OF INDIANA MAN, BRINGS FORTH STORM OF PROTEST FROM PROGRESSIVES.

IS THE SAME OLD GANG

If the Republicans nominate Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana for President they need not expect the support of Colonel Roosevelt or any considerable support from Progressives anywhere. The fight will be on as in 1912 and the Progressive vote will be large.

Recently Colonel Roosevelt had his attention called to the fact that the Muncie Press, a newspaper owned in part by Fairbanks and edited by Geo. B. Lockwood, former secretary of Fairbanks when he was Vice President, had printed an editorial stating that Roosevelt had expressed his preference for Fairbanks. Had this appeared in any other newspaper than a Fairbanks organ it would at once have been dismissed by Roosevelt's friends as a "joke." But appearing seriously in a Fairbanks' organ caused an inquiry to be made and the response was dynamic. All of the Colonel's old antipathy to the Fairbanks boom flashed back in a moment. He referred to the alleged libel published in the Fairbanks organ, the Indianapolis News, whose publisher, Fairbanks' cousin, Delavan Smith was indicted in the District of Columbia by Attorney General Bonaparte under directions from Roosevelt. He referred to the plotting against him by the Fairbanks clique in Indiana while he was President in his first term which was directed towards nominating Fairbanks or Mark Hanna against him in 1904. The Colonel was not unaware of this treachery towards him by the followers of the man who finding they could not defeat Roosevelt's nomination were glad to get second place on the ticket with him for their favorite in 1904. Colonel Roosevelt expressed forcibly his opinions of Fairbanks' relations to Big Business. He made it clear that he would regard his nomination as the worst possible. It was recalled in that connection that Fairbanks' friends were at the Chicago convention of 1908 seeking from Roosevelt and other promoters of the Taft boom second place on the ticket with Taft. Even then Colonel Roosevelt had taken the measure of the Fairbanks boom and when he was asked from Chicago whether he preferred Fairbanks or Sherman for the Vice Presidency on the Taft ticket and it was intimated that unless he took Sherman that the Fairbanks people might get away with the nomination as a matter of sympathy, the Colonel replied: "In that case we'll take Sher-

The attitude of Colonel Roosevelt himself towards the Fairbanks movement has been echoed in Indiana where the bringing out of Fairbanks for the Presidency and the obstruction of the old Fairbanks machine on the Republican party again in the form of Goodrich for Governor, Watson for Senator and Keating and Hemenway as chief bottle holders, has suddenly halted the efforts to bring the wings of the Republican party together and has caused the activity of the Progressives who are now organizing by precincts and expect to retain most of the votes they polled in 1914 and probably bring back many of those who voted for T. R. and the Progressive movement in 1912 when Albert J. Beveridge and Roosevelt carried a greater vote in the state than the Republican nominees.

Fairbanks and his organization represented by "Boss Joe" Keating, "the two Jims"—Hemenway and Watson—did more to deprive Colonel Roosevelt of the delegates in Indiana in 1912 than any other agency. All of the rough work of which so much complaint was made at the Chicago convention was done by this group. Fairbanks furnished the money and appeared in the convention at Chicago advocating Taft delegates while Mr. Keating and Hemenway, Goodrich and Watson did their share to keep Roosevelt from getting a majority of the delegates which would have nominated him had he obtained them. His friends believe he was deprived of what he was fairly entitled to, through the machinations of the Fairbanks machine. So believing neither the Colonel nor his men who followed him in the memorable movement in that state in 1912 will stand for Fairbanks nor will they "amalgamate" in a movement paraded as an example of party reunion when the only men put forward for the official honors and leadership are the men who "put across" the things of which the Roosevelt people complained so bitterly in 1912.

The Progressives in 1914 polled more than eighty thousand votes. This is much above the normal Republican majority. They are at work and have been for several weeks reforming the lines of battle. They report that all of the men who followed them in 1914 bid fair to enroll against their ancient political enemies again. The forcing of the Fairbanks organization to the front once more with the perennial parading of the moth-eaten Fairbanks' boom, has aroused the Progressives from dream of harmony which looked attractive to them earlier in the season. If the Progressive lamb is to lie down with the Republican lion in Indiana it must be with some assurances that the lamb will not be inside the lion when they arise. With the reappearance of the old Fairbanks machine in the politics of the state the chances of a Democratic or Progressive victory are becoming brighter. The Republicans, it is conceded, cannot carry the state with the Bull Moose organized and militant. They were never more alive and vigilant than today to get rid of the domination of the old Fairbanks railroad machine in Indiana politics.

HON. RALPH W. MOSS IS CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

The Hon. Ralph W. Moss has announced that he is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Representative to the United States Congress from the Fifth Indiana District. The announcement was made by Congressman Moss as he was leaving for Washington, after spending a week in his district, during which time he visited each of the counties of the district. Mr. Moss states that the general desire and solicitation of the united Democracy of his district that he make the race is responsible for his candidacy.

MEETING OF LOCUST STREET W. F. M. S.

That was a very enthusiastic missionary meeting which the ladies of the Locust Street Church held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. H. Pitkin. A spiritually helpful Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Watkins, followed by earnest prayer by Mrs. Beck and Mrs. Wright.

The lesson study for the day was presented by Mrs. Deerbake. It was on some practical phases of foreign work, leper work, agricultural work, teaching people to utilize better the natural resources at their hand, so famines need no longer occur in regions where they have been so taught, and also enabling the people to support their own churches and give for other missions; a rug factory, and improvements on the old hand loom of the natives, so they more ably provide for themselves, and each place of employment or of training a place of daily Bible study and evangelistic effort.

The lesson was well given and elicited questions and comments from the members.

Qualifying for M. O. G. H. honors aroused enthusiasm. The treasurer reported having sent an unusually large amount for first quarter.

In building the road known as the R. W. Coble road, which is on the Hendricks and Putnam county line, the lands owned by Otto McHaffie will be damaged. The county commissioners have ordered that the road be improved and McHaffie has filed a petition for damages. On Tuesday at a meeting of the county commissioners the petition of Mr. McHaffie for damages was heard and the commissioners awarded him $800 damages. It is said that Mr. McHaffie is not satisfied with the amount of damages and will appeal the case to the Circuit Court.

The Rev. J. H. Moore, of Seymour, an evangelist, is conducting revival meetings in Manhattan. The meetings began Monday and will continue throughout the week. The Rev. Moore and Louis Zaring of Manhattan were in Greencastle Tuesday.

ROAD TO BOOZE WAS ROUGH ONE

GREENCASLE PARTY OF SIX, RETURNING FROM PERTH, HAVE TWO ACCIDENTS ON RETURN TRIP EARLY SUNDAY MORNING—TWO MACHINES ARE WRECKED.

THEY ALL ESCAPE INJURY

A crowd of six men from Greencastle who came down in a livery automobile on New Year's met with two accidents on Saturday night and Sunday morning, while trying to make their way from Perth to Brazil, when automobiles in which they were riding went over the grade on the north Forest avenue road.

It is said that the men came to Brazil to visit the saloons and finding them closed they drove on to Perth where accommodations are reputed to be "better" for Sunday and holiday visitors. The men started home in the automobile at a late hour. When the machine came onto the Forest avenue road from one of the east and west roads the machine went over the road and ran down a steep grade on the other side. No one was injured, but the automobile was put out of commission.

At 2 a. m. a call was sent to the Coliseum Garage and Robert Butler, mechanic at the place, took out a car to bring the men on to Brazil. All went well until the party approached the pavement on north Forest avenue. The lights on the machine were dim and the electric light blinded the driver. The machine left the road and tumbled over a six-foot grade to the east, nearly landing in the little creek that flows from Campbell's pond. The top and wind shield of the car was torn off, but all occupants escaped injury. They were compelled to walk the remaining distance and the car was left until daylight when it was gotten back on the road.—The Brazil Times.

INDIANA BEST SUITED FOR HOG PRODUCTION

In the opening lecture of the course on "The Essentials of Successful Hog Management," Mr. J. W. Schwab, in charge of the animal husbandry work of the course spoke in part:

"There is no state in the Union better suited to the production of high grade hogs than Indiana. An abundance of feed, especially suited to growing hogs, is grown in this state. Indiana is better located in regard to markets, climatic conditions and shipping facilities than any other state.

"The eradication of disease will do much to put hog raising upon a more profitable basis. A better care of the brood sow and her litter is one of the most practical points to be considered in increasing hog production. Proper feeding of the brood sow and her litter at all times, and wise, economical feeding of the fattening hogs are important if hog raising is to be put on a more profitable basis."

The speaker recommended skim milk, shorts, tankage and oil meal as valuable supplements to be fed in connection with corn for sows and pigs. He urged that more forage crops, such as rape, alfalfa and red clover be grown for hog pastures. Rye and blue grass should be afforded for winter pasture. Sows and pigs should at all times be surrounded by the most sanitary conditions, and these are necessarily found when the hogs are given range rather than confined to small pens.

Following the lecture, J. C. Beavers talked interestingly for an hour on the subject of "Alfalfa Growing."

Then came a talk by Prof. C. B. Durham on "How to Make the Home Orchard Pay." Prof. Durham, in part, said:

"Many unpruned and unsprayed orchards in Indiana are not only unprofitable to the owner, but are breeding places for San Jose scale and fungous diseases, which endanger orchards of the entire community. By proper care, however, many of these neglected orchards, have been made to yield a handsome profit above the family requirement.

"The average farm orchard shows pruning errors that are costly in two ways—reduction of yield and increase in cost of production. To avoid such costly mistakes the orchard management expert here with the Short Course said that three simple things should be kept in mind. First the little crooked fruit spurs should never be cut from individual limbs; second, keep the trees of a low blocky shape, by trimming out branches so that sunshine can filter through the trees; third, make cuts clean and close to parent branch.

The drudgery of spraying can be avoided, and the efficiency increased by using good spray pumps with 40 feet of hose and 10 foot bamboo rods with good nozzles.

Mr. Durham said that it was unreasonable to expect the orchard to produce good annual crops without returning some fertility to the soil in the shape of such green corn crops as rye, or soy beans or by the use of barnyard manure.

Those interested in orchards would do well to see pruning and spraying demonstrations at the Short Course.

TELLS THE WOMEN HOW TO MANAGE HOME SUCCESSFULLY

The women's program for the Short Course which is being given in the domestic science rooms of the public schools, is given largely by Miss Alma L. Garvin. The first session was opened this afternoon by a talk on "Housekeeping on a Business Basis." Business principles need to be applied to the different processes in the home the same as in any other line of work. It is not the spending of money for new equipment wholly that will make the work easier but it is necessary to have more careful thought and planning.

The kitchen is our work shop. We spend more hours there than almost any place in the house. It is necessary for us to consider carefully the equipment in our kitchens. In the first place we want some cheerful and restful color on the wall instead of dull steel blue grey paper or paint. A tan, cream or light blue will make more pleasing wall colors. There are just two processes going on in the kitchen. 1. The preparation of meals and, 2. Clearing away after the meal. All the equipment necessary for each of the processes should be near each other. The equipment should be carefully selected. Miss Garvin said, "Do not get something just because someone has said it was good or that she likes it, see first if the article in question is built upon scientific principles and if it will meet the demands of the one who is to use the article. All so called labor savers should be used enough to make them pay for themselves.

We want more thought, more system and more labor saving devices

so that the women may have more time to devote to the family, to the school, to the church and to the community at large.

After the talk on "Housekeeping on a Business Basis" Miss Garvin gave a demonstration on the "Use of Cream Soups in the Diet." Much has been said lately in regard to the high cost of living. One of the large factors in this cost is our food. We are forced to consider more carefully the cost of our food and spend more time on the planning of the meals. Soups give one a fine opportunity to have variety in the diet and also to have nutritious food at little cost. Soups are classified into two groups; soup with stock; soup without stock. The soups having stock as their basis give an opportunity to use up the odds and ends of the meat that have accumulated from day to day while the cream soups are a means of utilizing what ingredients are left over from a previous meal. The "stock" soups are used frequently as a stimulant rather than a nutrient, but the cream soups or purees are more nutritious and should be used as the main part of the meal or as a first course to a luncheon when one would not serve heavy dishes following the soup. The cream soups are made of the vegetables or fish with milk and seasoning and it is always thickened slightly. Purees are made from vegetables or fish which are forced through a strainer and retained in the soup, milk and seasoning. It is generally thicker than cream soup.

Miss Garvin, in her demonstration, made cream soups and purees using the common vegetables.

While Mr. and Mrs. Spenced Mahan were away from their home on south Locust street Monday night, some one entered the cellar through a rear cellar door and stole several cans of fruit, some apples and some potatoes. A young man who is staying at the Mahan home this week, heard someone in the rear of the house just as he reached home, which was shortly after 9 o'clock. He looked out of a back window and saw a man leave the cellar stairway. The man carried a sack. Officer Maloney was called and secured a good description of the thief from the boy. An arrest in the case is expected soon.

SERGEANT GEORGE SLAVENS WEDS BROWNS VALLEY GIRL

PHOEBUS, Va., Dec. 30.—Sergeant George Slavens of Fortress Monroe and Miss Stella May McClain were united in marriage by Rev. McLain in the parlors of the Methodist parsonage Dec. 21st, 1915, at eight o'clock p. m. Immediately after the ceremony they went to their home which the groom had prepared.

Sergeant Slavens was dressed in the uniform of a soldier, while the bride was attired in a blue broad cloth tailored suit. Sergeant Slavens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Slavens of Greencastle, is a member of the Thirty-Fifth Company, Coast Artillery Corps. Mrs. Slavens is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McClain of Browns Valley, Ind., and was in the Normal graduating class of 1914 from the Indiana Conservatory of Music. Miss McClain was a successful teacher of music for several years in her home community.

Mr. and Mrs. Slavens will be at home to their friends at 34 Chesapeake avenue, Phoebus, Va.

WOODS BATMAN CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Woods Batman, of Floyd township, a prominent farmer and active Democrat, has announced his candidacy for the nomination of County Commissioner from the First District. Mr. Batman's official announcement appears in The Herald today. Witt Sutherland is the present commissioner from that district and, it is presumed, will make the race for re-election.

SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION INCREASE THEIR CAPITAL STOCK

The Greencastle Savings & Loan association, of which James B. Nelson is president and William B. Peck is secretary, has increased its capital stock from $200,000 to $500,000, according to a statement by one of the officials of the institution today. The Savings & Loan association has had a most successful business career, its business increasing so rapidly that an increase in the stock became necessary.

Ordinary flours seem coarse in texture when compared with the surpassing quality of Valier's Enterprise Flour.

By our special slow process of milling, we preserve, in the flour, the full baking quality of finest wheat, from which this flour is made. Then we sift many times through imported Swiss silk to make its texture as fine as its quality. You'll find that Valier's Enterprise Flour not only makes better baking, but makes more baking per sack.

SIX MORE STATES IN THE DRY LIST

COLORADO, IDAHO, SOUTH CAROLINA, IOWA, ARKANSAS AND WASHINGTON GO DRY WITH THE ADVENT OF 1916—SIXTEEN NOW IN THE DRY COLUMN.

TWO OTHERS TO GO "DRY"

NEW STATES IN THE DRY COLUMN.

Colorado.
Idaho.
South Carolina.
Iowa.
Arkansas.
Washington.
Other Dry States.
Oregon.
Arizona.
North Dakota.
Kansas.
Oklahoma.
Mississippi.
Maine.
North Carolina.
West Virginia.
Tennessee.
Other States to Go Dry.
Georgia, on May 1, 1916.
Virginia, on Nov. 1, 1916.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 31.—Full prohibition under the constitutional amendment of Colorado goes into effect throughout the state tomorrow. Fourteen breweries and more than 1500 saloons will formally go out of business tonight. Many of the breweries have already been converted to other uses. Under the new law private consumers may receive liquor through common carriers, mailing affidavit that the goods are for medicinal or private use.

DES MOINES, Ia., Dec. 31.—Nearly five hundred saloons in this state will bolt their doors tonight, never to reopen. The state prohibition law is effective tomorrow. It was passed by the Legislature last February. Attorney General Cossom says he will lead the fight personally to enforce the new law. The city council of Manning, Ia., recently granted a liquor license to operate for three years, but the state authorities will see that the courts pass on the validity of that action. Theoretically, Iowa has been dry for the past thirty years, but practically it was known to be very damp in spots. There have been seventeen breweries operating in the state, but many of those have already shifted to some other lines of production, some becoming creameries.

BOISE, Ida., Dec. 31.—The most rigid prohibition measure ever passed by a legislature is the Idaho law which goes into effect tomorrow. The law absolutely prohibits the possession of liquor by any corporation, firm or individual, except when it is procured for medicinal or scientific purposes. Then it must be obtained only on a sworn certificate. Since territorial days, the saloon has played an important part in Idaho politics. The party leaders are glad to be rid of the issue. At the coming general election, the voters will pass upon the question of prohibiting forever the manufacture of liquor in this state.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 31.—The prohibition measure adopted by the voters of South Carolina last September, goes into effect at midnight tonight. The vote was two to one in favor of the ban on liquor. Fifteen counties have had saloons, and these will close up tight tonight.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Dec. 31.—Arkansas goes dry tonight, after a long fight against the saloons. The legislature passed the measure last February, and Governor Hays signed it on February 6. No saloon licenses have been granted since that time, and they all expire with the old year tonight.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 31.—The prohibition law enacted by popular vote at the elections in 1914 which has been bitterly fought in the courts by the liquor interests, becomes effective tomorrow. It was only a few weeks ago that the law triumphed over its opponents, when the State Supreme Court ruled that the measure expressed the desire of the people of the state. The prohibition law was an initiative measure. All the saloons and breweries will quit tonight. Individuals may import for their own use not to exceed two quarts of liquor in twenty days. Liquor packages must be so marked and the fullest publicity is to be given to the liquor traffic after tomorrow.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 31.—Georgia is all ready to join the dry column, but a lease of life has been granted to the liquor men until May 1, 1916, in the measure adopted by the legislature. The manufacture or sale of any beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent. of alcohol will be prohibited. Advertising liquors in any manner will also be banned.

THOUSAND TEACHERS TO MEET IN GREENCASTLE

Superintendent H. A. Henderson of the city schools and Superintendent L. G. Wright of the county schools were in Terre Haute this morning and met the executive committee of the fifth district teachers' association. It was decided by the committee to hold the district teachers' meeting in this city the first Saturday in March. This meeting is to take the place of the regular teachers' institute only instead of being a meeting of the county teachers it will be a meeting of all the teachers of the district.

Superintendent H. A. Henderson announced today that it is planned by the local school people in charge of the arrangements to make this one of the big events to be held in this city during the early spring months. Efforts will be made to secure some speaker of national reputation to deliver the address, Dr. Gansaulus, D. D., of Chicago, has been mentioned to deliver the address and an effort will be made to secure him for this meeting. More than 1000 teachers, it is believed, will be here to attend the meeting.

FRUIT SHOW AT PURDUE DURING FARMERS' WEEK.

All visitors who expect to attend Farmers' Week at Purdue are being urged to bring exhibits of apples for entry in the apple show which is to be held from Tuesday, January 11th, until the following Friday.

The fruit show is to be made quite a feature this year and no entry fees are to be charged. The only restrictions placed upon exhibits are that they shall be Indiana grown and shall be entered not later than noon of Wednesday, January 12th. This provision is made to afford late comers at the course an opportunity to enter their fruit.

Box, tray and plate classes are open to all competitors and special classes of apple pies, apple jelly and apple butter have been arranged for the women. No limitation has been placed upon the number of boxes or trays which a single exhibitor may enter but in the plate class no more than two plates of the same variety may be entered by any one person.

In addition to the apple and apple products exhibits, the University and the Experiment Station are cooperating in an educational exhibit of local and foreign fruits and nuts. In all, quite an attractive show has been arranged and we hope that the visitors from Putnam county may bring back their share of the awards.

Democrats Take Notice.

The Democrats of Putnam County should take notice that on the 7th day of March, 1916, under the new primary election law, there will be a primary election held and almost everybody that runs for office will have to be nominated at that time.

A United States Senator.
A Governor for Indiana.
A Congressman for the Fifth District.
A Representative for Putnam county.

A Treasurer for Putnam county.
A Sheriff of Putnam county.
A Commissioner for First District.
A Coroner and a Surveyor.

The law also provides that the precinct Committees for each precinct must be elected at this primary. They must be voted on by the Democrats of each precinct. The men put in as precinct committees have a considerable to do under the present plan and should be men who have the party interests at heart.

All men who desire to be candidates for county office should file with the County Clerk, any time after January 5, 1916, and not later than February 4, their notice of candidacy.

Where not otherwise disqualified the present committee will serve for the coming primary.

L. X. Sellers, president of the American Temperance Board of Indianapolis, delivered an address before a large congregation at the Christian church here Sunday evening. The address was forceful entertaining and highly instructive. He pointed out that Indiana is spending $75,000,000 a year for "booze to make bums of our boys." He said that every producer in the United States was proud of his product except the "beer booster." That man said Mr. Sellers, is always ashamed of his work.

The small child of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Dorsett died at the home of the parents Tuesday, Dec. 28. The cause of its death was due to cerebral hemorrhage. Burial was in the Crown Center cemetery.

ALVA LISBY IS AGAIN CHOSEN AS ROAD BOSS

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS AT FIRST MEETING OF THE YEAR SELECT ROAD SUPERINTENDENT TO SUCCEED HIMSELF FOR ENSUING TWO YEARS—BOARD IS RE-ORGANIZED.

SUTHERLIN IS PRESIDENT

Alva Lisby is Putnam county's road superintendent for the ensuing two years. The Board of County Commissioners consisting Witt Sutherlin, Reason Larkin and Charley Daggy, at their meeting Monday named Mr. Lisby to succeed himself in that office.

The newly chosen road superintendent was elected two years ago, at which time the office was created by the Indiana Legislature. During his two years in office Mr. Lisby has made a splendid record and because of his excellent record the commissioners did not hesitate to appoint him for another term. There were no other candidates for the place, Mr. Lisby's re-appointment having long been assured.

The first business of the commissioners this morning was to organize the board for the year's work. Witt Sutherlin, for the past year president of the board, was re-elected to that office. C. C. Gillen, county attorney, acted as chairman during the re-organization of the board.

Charley Daggy, for the first time, took his place at the commissioner's table this morning and was welcomed as a member of the board by the other members. Mr. Daggy succeeds James Bunten as county commissioner.

MUCH ROAD BUSINESS IS BEFORE COMMISSIONERS

The first meeting of the year for the county commissioners which was held in the commissioners' room in the court house on Monday was a busy one. Because of the great amount of business up for consideration the meeting was not adjourned until late in the afternoon. The morning session was devoted mostly to allowing claims and other detail work.

Road business occupied most of the afternoon session, at least twelve petitions for the improvement of roads being up for consideration. Six petitions for the improvement of roads in the county were approved by the commissioners and it was ordered that bids for the improvements of these roads be received at the regular meeting of commissioners on Feb. 7.

The roads which were ordered improved are the E. L. Herbert and others road in Washington township, the C. G. Lee and others road in Warren township and Cloverdale township, the J. S. McCammack and others road in Jefferson township, the Daniel H. Huber and others road in Cloverdale township, the George Wright and others road in Mill Creek township, and the Loyd A. Blue and others road in Cloverdale township.

The C. E. Wallace and others road in Mill Creek township was ordered reopened.

The Harlan Brown and others road in Monroe township was ordered closed.

Action on several other road matters was continued until the next meeting of the commissioners.

JAMES H. HURST IN RACE FOR TREASURER

James H. Hurst, better known to his many friends as "Uncle Jim" Hurst, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Treasurer. Mr. Hurst, who made the race for this nomination four years ago, and who was a close second to Henry H. Runyan, who was nominated, announces his candidacy in The Herald today. The newly announced candidate is one of the wheel horses of Putnam county Democracy, having been in the ranks of the Democratic workers for many years.

Another candidate to announce is Arthur Plummer, the present county surveyor. Mr. Plummer has announced his candidacy for another term in that office.

A GREENCASTLE INTERVIEW.

Mr. Matkins Tells His Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a Greencastle man years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

W. W. Matkin, wood worker, 624 E. Washington St., Greencastle, says: "A number of years ago I was in a railroad accident and my back and kidneys were injured. Ever since then, my kidneys have caused me trouble and I have suffered from pains through my back. I tried different medicines without benefit and finally I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. They soon made me feel better. Since then when I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, they have always helped me." (Statement given January 7th, 1909.)

On October 6th, 1915, Mr. Matkin said: "You have my permission to continue using my endorsement. I still think there is nothing better for kidney trouble than Doan's Kidney Pills."

FILLMORE BASKETBALL TEAM WINS THIRD GAME

Showing great ability to hit the basket, the Fillmore basketball team walked away with the Bainbridge quintet Wednesday night in this city by a score of 28 to 11. This was the third game that has been played by these two teams, each having won one before this, and a large crowd of rooters turned out to cheer their favorites on to victory. The game was fast from the beginning and the players were forced to play their best.

The line-up was as follows:
Fillmore (28). Bainbridge (11).
C. Buiss ..... Guard ..... Reads
Rader ..... Guard ..... Hines
Pursel ..... Forward ..... Moffett
E. Buiss ..... Forward ..... Cosgrove
Hammond ..... Center ..... Morris Referee, Stewart, Bainbridge; O'Brien, Greencastle.

JIM BUNTEN PRESENTED WITH HANDSOME WATCH.

James B. Bunten, whose term as county commissioner expired Friday, received a handsome watch and chain as a token of esteem and appreciation, from the many friends who have been associated with him during his term as commissioner. The presentation was made Friday morning during a meeting of the county commissioners. C. C. Gillen served as spokesman for those who gave the gift. Not only was Mr. Bunten remembered, but the friends also remembered Mrs. Bunten who was given a set of elegant knives and forks.

The meeting of the county commissioners was called that morning to allow office claims and attend to other business which comes with the closing of the business of the county for the year.

BARELY ESCAPES FALLING UNDER THE WHEELS OF CAR

An attempt by W. P. Sackett of this city to board an eastbound interurban car as it was leaving the station on Thursday came near resulting in a serious accident.

Mr. Sackett was coming from his home, which is near the interurban station, and had almost reached the station when the car started. He attempted to board the rear end of the car and slipped on the platform and lost his footing. He barely escaped falling under the car by catching hold of a railing on the outside of the car's vestibule.

He was dragged a distance of 20 feet, his limbs under the car, before the motorman brought the interurban to a standstill. He suffered only a few minor bruises. Mr. Sackett continued his trip to Indianapolis.

WORTH THINKING ABOUT.

Prosecutor Rucker of Indianapolis has turned back to Marion county, out of his own pocket $1,343.17 spent in the Mayor Bell case, claiming the state did not get value received from this expenditure. It is told this money was used in what the defense charged was a "school of perjury." As Mr. Rucker's salary and fees amount to some $20,000 yearly the return will not hurt him much. But the incident discloses a condition that makes a full investigation of the "school of perjury" charge an absolute necessity in order for the court to maintain its own self respect. The court cannot afford to have its records disclose only Mr. Rucker's side of this scandalous charge as he lays it down on return of money. Let the other side speak by record also. The public is entitled to know all that is to be known concerning this "school of perjury scandal."—Washington Democrat.

Alva Rucker, prosecuting attorney of Marion county has paid back into the county treasury something over $1,300 which was spent in an effort to get testimony against Marion county democrats. Rucker says the money was paid to Bat Materson who conducted the alleged school of perjury. But Materson comes back with the charge that the sum was nearer $4,000, much of which went for beer and the like. Whatever the amount may be or whatever purpose the money might have been spent for makes little difference. If anybody pays back the money that was worse than wasted the Indianapolis News, which would have benefitted most had the prosecution succeeded in railroad the men to prison, should pay a large part. It was a big game for the News and it suffered a big loss in prestige, influence and confidence of the people by the exposures in the trial.—Newcastle Times.

The Tipton Times has not understood why only $1,300 was returned when $30,000 was wrongfully taken from the treasury and used in an attempt by perjured testimony to convict innocent men, the object being to reach certain political and corrupt personal ambitions.

Most of the people who know the circumstances believe that the return of the $1,300 is an attempt to eliminate certain things from the records that the state board of accounts might construe into criminal acts. For the annual inspection of these records is about to be made. It is also considered peculiar that Rucker appeared before Judge Collins to return the $1,300, when Collins was set aside as the judge and succeeded by Judge Eichhorn in these cases.

Andrew Driscoll, 23 years of age, who was recently brought here from Shelbyville and lodged in the Putnam county jail for escaping from the Indiana State Farm at Putnamville was taken before Judge Hughes Monday afternoon and sentenced to serve from 2 to 5 years in the Indiana Reformatory. Driscoll was taken to Jeffersonville this morning by Deputy Sheriff Howard Harris.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certified copy of a decree to me directed from the clerk of the Circuit Court of Clay County, Indiana, in the case in which William H. Asher, is the plaintiff and Mahlon V. McDonald, are the defendants, requiring me to make the sum of three thousand, seven hundred and sixty-four dollars, ($3,764), together with interest and costs, I will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, on Saturday, the 12th day of February, 1916, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M., and 4 o'clock P. M. of said date at the door of the court house in the City of Greencastle, County of Putnam, State of Indiana, the rents and profits for a term not exceeding seven years, the following described real estate in said county and state, to-wit:

"The south half of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter containing twenty (20) acres, and the west half of the southwest quarter except fifteen (15) acres off the south end of said half quarter, all in section thirty-five (35) township thirteen (13) north, range three (3) west".

If such rents and profits will not sell for a sum sufficient to pay and satisfy said decree, interest and costs, I will at same time and place offer for sale at public auction the fee simple of said real estate or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay and satisfy said decree, interests and costs.

Said sale to be made without any relief, from valuation or appraisement laws.

Dated January 7, 1916.

Miss Emily Jackson, who is teaching at the Allen schoolhouse in Washington township, spent the holiday week with James L. Browning and family near Fillmore.

The marriage of Charles H. Hall, of Oliver, Ill., and Miss Blanche O. Woodworth of Cloverdale was solemnized at the Christian church parsonage Friday at noon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hootman. The young couple will reside in Oliver, Ill.

Mrs. Charles P. Broadstreet was taken to the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis on Friday, where she will undergo an operation. Mrs. Broadstreet has been ill for the past several weeks. She was accompanied to Indianapolis by her husband and daughter, Miss Helen Broadstreet.

The case of William Renick against the Greencastle Kitchen Cabinet Co., for damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received several months ago while Renick was in the employ of the Cabinet company, has been settled out of court. In the settlement Renick is given $750. George Wilson represented Renick in the case, while Hays & Murphy represented the Cabinet company. The case was set for trial on January 16.

The death of Bryon Crook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook of north Greencastle, occurred on Friday at the home of his parents at 3 o'clock. His death was due to tuberculosis from which he had been suffering for some time. He was twelve years of age. The funeral was held on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the house. The services were in charge of Rev. A. M. Hootman, pastor of the Christian church of this city. The burial was in the Pisgah cemetery, north of Morton.

The weather conditions which now exist are extremely bad for the quail. Unless quail are fed and protected during these heavy snows hundreds of them will freeze and starve to death. Their haunts and feeding grounds should be discovered by the farmers and feed thrown to them during the present kind of weather. Most farmers who are familiar with the habits of the quail generally know on what part of the farm they can be found. These farmers should in some way get feed to these birds. Quails are of too great a value to the farmer to be neglected as they are the best worm and insect destroyer that can be found.

Boost Indiana and especially Putnam county apples is the slogan of the Greencastle Orchard Co., of which William Wetz of this city is the manager. Mr. Wetz this morning is arranging to take a display of Putnam county apples to the offices of the company in Indianapolis, where they will be kept during the week of January 10 to 15. During the week the National League of Commission merchants of the United States and Canada, which includes in its membership more than a thousand commission merchants, will meet in Indianapolis for their annual convention. These commission merchants all are buyers of apples and the intent of the Greencastle Orchard Company is to boost Putnam county and Indiana apples to these men.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Mrs. E. R. Bartley received word Thursday morning from Boise, Idaho, of the death of the 11-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weist. Mrs. Weist, who is Mrs. Bartley's niece, was formerly Miss Jean Stroube of this city.

Matt Murphy, of the legal firm of Hays & Murphy, who has been confined to his room at the Commercial hotel for several days by an attack of grip, was able to be out today.

The funeral of Mrs. Luitia Engle, who died at her home in Maple Heights Wednesday morning, was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Maple Church. Rev. B. D. Beck, pastor of the Locust Street Church, had charge of the services. Burial was in Forest Hill cemetery.

Miss Margaret Quigg, a former Greencastle milliner, who for the past few years has been working in millinery departments of the larger city stores, has purchased a millinery business in Hutcheson, Kansas. Miss Quigg took possession of the store the day before Christmas. Miss Quigg is a sister of Harry Quigg of this city.

Harry Maxwell, who for several months has been doing evangelistic work with the Rev. Bodell, evangelist, is home for a few days' visit with his family. The evangelists have just closed a meeting in Wooster, O., and will leave in a few days for Morning Sun, Iowa, where they will hold services. Later they will go to Chattanooga, Tenn.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Merkle, who died at her home on Martinsville street Wednesday morning, was held Thursday afternoon in the Maple Heights church. The services were in charge of Rev. O. L. Jones, pastor of the Maple church, assisted by Rev. B. D. Beck, pastor of the Locust street church. Burial was in the Bethel cemetery in Warren township.

The employees of the Greencastle Garage were delightfully entertained Thursday evening with a four-course dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Hair. After dinner the evening was spent in a social way and the guests left at an early hour having thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

L. M. Cooper, manager of the Lyric theater in this city for the past two months, has sold out to H. C. Geberin and G. E. Roach of Peru. Mr. Geberin, who will act as manager of the theater, will take charge immediately. Both Mr. Geberin and Mr. Roach are experienced in the motion picture business.

Mrs. F. P. Sawyers has returned from Martinsville, where she has been taking treatment for rheumatism, and will be at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Durham, for a short visit. Mrs. Durham, who has been quite ill for several days, is reported to be much improved.

The funeral of Byron Crook, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook of north Greencastle, who died Friday morning about 3 o'clock, was held Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at the home. The services were in charge of Rev. A. M. Hootman, pastor of the Christian church of this city. Burial was in the Pisgah cemetery, north of Morton.

Mary K. Jones has filed suit for divorce in the Circuit Court of Putnam County, through her attorneys, Allee, James & Allee, against her husband, Henry L. Jones. The plaintiff alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. She says that the defendant has upon several occasions threatened to kill her and that she finds it impossible to live with him. She asks for a divorce and the restoration of her maiden name, Mary K. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shuey delightfully entertained a number of their friends at 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dora Sweet and son Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Fines Whitted and daughters Thelma and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Busby and Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and children.

About ten couples of young people enjoyed a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Dulin on the corner of Locust and Anderson street. Miss Cornelia and Miss Evelyn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dulin, acted as hostesses. The young ladies are at home from St. Mary's-of-the-Woods for the holidays. The evening was spent in dancing and light refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Nellie Farrow, Delilah Wilson, Dorothy Beard, Marguerite Bicknell, Philip Sellers, Tom Manuel, Basil Bell, Robert Allen, Frank Young, Byrd Bell, Paul Taylor and Jacob Hirt.

The death of Mrs. Mary Anderson, 73 years of age, occurred at her home on the Bloomington road on Maple Heights Sunday night at 9:30 o'clock. Mrs. Anderson was the wife of Frank Anderson, who is a flagman where the Vandalia tracks cross the Bloomington road and was well known in the south part of Greencastle where she has resided for the past few years. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Maple Chapel church. The services were in charge of Rev. B. D. Beck, pastor of the Locust street church of this city. Burial was in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Rheumatism!

How is rheumatism recognized? Some have said—

Rheumatism is a dull pain.
Rheumatism is a sharp pain.
Rheumatism is sore muscles.
Rheumatism is stiff joints.
Rheumatism is a shifting pain.

All have declared—Rheumatism is Pain.

Sloan's Liniment applied:—

The blood begins to flow freely—the body's warmth is renewed—the congestion disappears—the pain is gone.

ELECT SUTHERLIN COUNTY CHAIRMAN

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE THIS MORNING AT 10:30 O'CLOCK—NO OPPOSITION TO ELECTION OF POPULAR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY AS LEADER OF PARTY.

VERMILION IS SECRETARY

William M. Sutherland was unanimously elected chairman of the Democratic Central Committee to succeed Arthur J. Hamrick, resigned. Sylvanus Vermillion was elected secretary of the committee. There was no opposition to the election of either Mr. Sutherland or Mr. Vermillion.

In the selection of Mr. Sutherland as county chairman the Democrats of the county have selected a man well qualified to lead the party in its organization. During his term as prosecuting attorney he has conducted the office in an excellent manner. His large acquaintance over the county and his splendid political judgment will make him a splendid leader for the Putnam county organization. In the selection of Mr. Vermillion for the secretaryship fully as wise judgment has been shown by the committeemen. In the entire county there could not be found a man who is better fitted for this position.

The newly elected chairman and secretary will only serve through the primary election, as the new primary law requires that the precinct committeemen, who constitute the Central Committee, be elected at the primary. The newly elected committeemen then will select their chairman and secretary. It is probable, however, that the new committee, when elected will continue the men selected today as their leaders.

The meeting this morning was largely attended and the enthusiasm was great. The expressions of optimism for a county, state and national Democratic victory were enthusiastic. Never has the prospects for a Democratic victory been brighter than this year.

The Democratic County Committee members by township, who met here today are as follows:

Jackson Township.
Charley Russell and James Wright.
Franklin Township.
John Sutherland, Willard Gough and Charley Crodian.
Russell Township.
Witt Sutherland and William Hodskins.
Clinton Township.
John McCabe and Charley Hart.
Monroe Township.
Charley Pickett and Emory Nichols.
Marion Township.
Oscar Rector and Fred Ruark.
Greencastle Township.
Jess Hamrick, Alec Lane, C. C. Gillen, Wm. Jameson, J. R. King, George Sage, Chas. Huffman, Dan O'Connell, and Hark Jackson.
Madison Township.
John Akers and Warren Lane.
Washington Township.
John McElroy and Clint Johnson.
Warren Township.
Buck Hepler.
Jefferson Township.
Thomas Hurst and D. V. McCamack.
Mill Creek Township.
Cleve Parker.
Cloverdale Township.
Howard Shake and Herschal Foster.
The first business transacted by the committeemen was the acceptance of the resignation of Arthur J. Hamrick, as county chairman, and C. C.

Gillen as secretary of the committee. The election of the new chairman and the new secretary then was taken up. There was no opposition to either Mr. Sutherland or Mr. Vermillion for the offices.

Following the election of Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Vermillion they were called into the room and took charge of the meeting. Each expressed his appreciation for the honor which had been bestowed upon them.

It was agreed that the committee should meet again at the call of the chairman as soon as the committee which has been appointed by the Governor has reported on its interpretation of the primary law. This probably will be about January 15.

Vacancies on the committee caused by resignations and by committeemen moving from the precinct were reported in the south Roachdale precinct of Franklin township, the south precinct of Cloverdale township and in the south precinct of the second ward in Greencastle city. These vacancies will be filled by allowing each precinct to select its own committeemen. Following the transaction of this business the committee adjourned its meeting.

The Gist of It.

"Last December I had a very severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weatherby, Mo. If you would know the value of this remedy, ask any one who has used it. Obtainable everywhere.

TEST APPLES FOR CANNING

GREENCASCADE ORCHARD CO., TOGETHER WITH THE SANITARY CANNING CO., AND PURDUE UNIVERSITY, IS WORKING TO PROVE THAT INDIANA APPLES WILL KEEP PERFECTLY UNDER PROPER CANNING METHODS.

USE PUTNAM COUNTY FRUIT

That Indiana apples, if properly canned, will keep perfectly, is the assertion of Indiana apple growers. And to prove this the Greencastle Orchard Co., managed by William Wetz of this city, together with Purdue University and the Sanitary Canning Co., which is one of the largest canning concerns in the United States, is making a test.

There has been some doubt regarding the canning qualities of Indiana apples. In fact it has never been conclusively proven whether Indiana apples would properly keep when canned. As this doubt existed the orchard company decided to have the question settled.

Nine barrels of nine different varieties were supplied the Indianapolis branch of the Sanitary Canning Co., and these apples are being canned under the supervision of the canning company officials and experts from Purdue. The canned apples will be stored away and a test made. There is no doubt in the minds of the promoters of the orchard company, the Purdue experts and the canning company officials that the apples will prove to be well adapted for canning purposes.

MILL CREEK TOWNSHIP FARM LAND SELLS FOR $24,470

Two hundred and sixty-nine acres of land, known as the B. A. Parker farm, which was sold Thursday by Tilghman Ruark, administrator of the estate of the late Mr. Parker, sold for a total of $24,470. The sale was made public auction, Coles Otto Sherrill and Otto Dobbs crying the sale. The land was sold in four pieces. An 80-acre strip, located near Broadpark, was sold to Dan Parker for $9,000. Charley Parker bought the home place of 80 acres for $7,200. Charley Dorsett purchased a 24-acre tract for $1,970, while an 85-acre bottom farm sold to Walter Allee for $6,300.

ORPHANAGE TWINS ARE THE VICTIMS OF WHOOPING COUGH

The "Orphanage Twins," the two little boys who recently were taken by the Methodist Orphanage here, are suffering whooping cough. Miss Godwin, in charge of the orphanage, states that the twins have become great favorites with those who have visited the orphanage and there is always a great demand to "see the twins." On account of their illness visitors will not be allowed to see the boys until they have recovered from the disease.

LARGE CROWD OUT TO HEAR CONGRESSMEN

MEETING IN THE COURT ROOM THIS AFTERNOON AT WHICH THE HON. JOHN A. M. ADAIR, CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR, AND CONGRESSMAN MOSS SPEAK IS ENTHUSIASTIC.

PREDICT GREAT VICTORY

A large crowd of enthusiastic Democrats heard Congressman John A. M. Adair, of Portland, Indiana, Democratic candidate for the nomination for Governor, and Congressman Ralph W. Moss, who addressed the people of Putnam county in the court room at 2 o'clock Friday.

Regardless of the fact that the county roads were in the worse condition that they have been in months, many farmers braved the weather and came to Greencastle to hear the congressmen. The court room was well filled when Andrew Durham, chairman of the meeting, introduced Congressman Moss, who was the first speaker. Following the address by Mr. Moss, Congressman Adair spoke. He dealt with national affairs and in his eloquent and convincing manner assured the people of the county that the Democratic party is so strongly entrenched that splendid victories, both national, and in Indiana, are assured.

Phillip Zoercher, reporter of the supreme court, and James Houck, a member of the state board of tax commissioners, were here from Indianapolis to attend the meeting.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Twentieth Century Club entertained on New Year's evening at the home of Miss Delilah Miller. The committee in charge had planned a dinner party and covers were laid for fifty at one long table, each one finding places by their cards. The husbands of the members and a few friends were the guests.

After the guests found their places, before they were seated, Miss Lank, presiding at the piano, and Mrs. Beard, Mrs. Brattain and Mrs. Shouse sang as a blessing "The Evening Hymn." Mrs. T. E. Evans, president of the club, was toastmistress, and in a few well-chosen words, introduced Mrs. A. M. Hootman, who gave the toast to "Our Twentieth Century Husbands." Mrs. Hootman said in part, "How glad we were to entertain the men and friends at this, our New Year feast." After which each was asked to look on the reverse side of the dinner card, where they would find some witticism or toast, and anyone who cared to might read theirs and much merriment was caused by these.

After the second course, Rev. E. G. Shouse gave a toast to the "Twentieth Century Club Women." Then more of the individual toasts were read.

The dinner was served by Mrs. Fred Thomas, Miss Ethel Davis, Miss Mary Little and Miss Annie Jones. The main dining room was beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations and red candles were used. Red carnations were the favors.

After adjourning to the parlors the club quartette, composed of Mesdames Brothers, Beard, and Shouse and Miss Lank, sang several songs, after which Miss Ethel Davis gave several readings in a beautiful manner.

Many were the expressions that this was the best evening the club had ever given.

Prominent Indiana Democrat Who Spoke In Greencastle Today

HON. JOHN A. M. ADAIR.

JOSEPH M. ALLEN IS AUDITOR NOW

NEW COUNTY OFFICIALS TAKE UP THEIR DUTIES — NEW AUDITOR SUCCEEDS C. L. AIRHART — BENTON CURTIS, AS DEPUTY, AND MISS LUCILE ALLEN AS ASSISTANT — CHARLEY DAGGY SUCCEEDS JAMES BUNTON AS COMMISSIONER.

RECEPTION IN THE OFFICE

It is Joe M. Allen, county auditor, today.

It is Benton Curtis, deputy auditor, today.

It is Miss Lucile Allen, assistant deputy auditor.

For with the issuing in of the New Year, came the change in the office of the county auditor. C. L. Airhart, for the past four years county auditor, and his son, Jesse Airhart, deputy auditor, step down and out of the office they have so splendidly conducted during their administration and Joe M. Allen, with his newly appointed deputy, and assistant, take charge.

Neither Mr. Allen nor his deputy need introduction to the people of Putnam county. Mr. Allen, for years a prominent farmer and auctioneer, is known to perhaps every resident of the county. Mr. Curtis, who severs his connections with the Citizens National Bank to take up his new duties, served in the capacity of deputy auditor under Daniel V. Moffett of Cloverdale, and is eminently well fitted to again assume the duties of deputy. Under the direction of these men there is no doubt but that the auditor's office will be economically and efficiently conducted during the coming four years. Miss Allen, who is a niece of the new auditor, is a DePauw graduate and a young woman of ability. For several weeks she has been working in the auditor's office in order to get acquainted with her new duties.

And another change in officials is the taking of office of Charley Daggy, the new county commissioner, who succeeds James Bunton. Mr. Daggy is a Greencastle township farmer and business man who is well qualified to fill the office to which he has been elected.

With the close of his term of office, Mr. Bunton leaves a host of friends whom have been associated with him during his term of office. His official duties have been performed in such a way as to have made his many friends and admirers. For Mr. Bunton has been a good commissioner.

The only other officer who began a new term with the beginning of 1916 is Henry H. Runyan, who succeeds himself in that office. Mr. Runyan started on his second two-year term Saturday.

In the auditor's office that morning a regular New Year's reception, at which Mr. Allen and Mr. Daggy were the hosts, was held. As has been the custom of many years, the new officers treated with apples and cigars and hundreds were there to congratulate the new officers and wish them a prosperous and happy new year.

AUTOMOBILE FATALITIES.

Number of Machines in Use Increasing Much Faster Than Deaths Resulting from Automobile Accidents.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Is the deadliness of the automobile increasing or decreasing?

This question seems to be answered in a very conclusive manner by the Bureau of the Census, in making public some preliminary mortality statistics for the year 1914, which indicate that during the five years from 1909 to 1914 the number of automobiles in use in the United States increased more than twice as rapidly as the number of fatalities caused by them.

At the close of 1909, according to figures compiled by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, of New York City, from state registration reports, due allowance being made for duplicate registrations, the number of automobiles in use in the United States was approximately 200,000; by the close of 1913 it had risen to 1,270,000; and a year later, at the end of 1914, it was 1,750,000.

In the meantime the number of deaths due to automobile accidents and injuries increased from 632 in the death-registration area in 1909, containing 56 per cent. of the population of the United States, to 2,623 in the same area in 1914; and the increase from 1913 to 1914, for the registration area as constituted in 1913, then containing 65 per cent of the population of the country, was from 2,488 to 2,795.

Thus a five-year increase of 775 per cent.—accepting as reliable the figures compiled by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce—in number of machines has been accompanied by an increase of 315 per cent. in automobile fatalities; and a one-year increase of 38 per cent. in number of machines has been accompanied by an increase of 12 per cent. in fatalities.

Perhaps a more reliable comparison, from the statistician's point of view, can be made between the increase in number of automobiles in use and the increase in the rate per 100,000 population for deaths caused by them. This is because, with a given number of machines in use in a given area, the fatalities due to them will tend to be proportional to the population of that area. When the comparison is made on this basis, it appears that a five-year increase of 775 per cent. in number of machines has been accompanied by an increase of 258 per cent.—from 1.2 to 4.3 per 100,000 population—in the death rate resulting from automobile fatalities. Similarly, a one-year increase of 38 per cent. in number of automobiles has taken place along with an increase of only 10 per cent.—from 3.9 to 4.3 per 100,000—in the death rate charged to them.

One cause of this proportional decrease in the destructiveness of the automobile is undoubtedly to be found in a reduction in average annual mileage per machine; but, after due weight is given this factor, and a suitable margin is allowed for possible error resulting from inaccuracy in the estimated portion of the automobile statistics, the figures still appear to furnish ample justification for the conclusion that the automobile today is being driven with more care and more regard for public safety than it was a few years ago.

A CAB TEAM IS KNOCKED DOWN BY A LIVE WIRE

TEAM OWNED BY FRED BRYAN OF THE GREENCASCADE TRANSFER CO., RUNS AGAINST PUTNAM ELECTRIC CO. WIRE ON SOUTH JACKSON STREET EARLY SATURDAY MORNING. DRIVER, TOO, GETS A SHOCK.

NONE ARE BADLY INJURED

A live electric wire, which had been pulled from its fastenings on a pole at the corner of Jackson street and Liberty street, allowing it to sag across the street, gave a team of horses owned by Fred Bryan, of the Greencastle Transfer Co., and their driver, Will Steele, severe electric shocks at an early hour Saturday morning.

Both horses were knocked down when they came in contact with the wire and then the driver, who had got off of his driver's box to investigate the cause of the horses falling, touched the wire and he, too, was knocked down. The wire struck the horses at the shoulders.

The driver got the horses to their feet and they seemed little if any the worse from the experience. Mr. Steele suffered no ill effects from the shock.

In order that no one else might have a similar experience, Mr. Steele secured an ax from a nearby house and chopped the wire in two.

FILES SUIT TO FORCE TRUSTEE TO MAINTAIN ROAD IN JACKSON TWP.

Suit in which John R. Cox, a Jackson township farmer, is asking the Claude B. Jefferies, trustee of Jackson township, be ordered to have John R. Cox road in that township repaired and maintained so that it will be suitable for travel, has been filed in the Putnam Circuit Court by Allee, James & Allee, attorneys representing Mr. Cox.

The suit is in the nature of a writ mandamus proceeding. Beside the trustee, Henry M. Wilson, George L. Miller and Elisha Patrick, the township advisory board members, are George McCloud, the road supervisor, of Road District No. 1 in Jackson township, are named as defendants.

Mr. Cox alleges that he owns land adjoining the road, which is a dirt road, and that the township trustee has allowed the road to be neglected and that the road is not properly maintained. The road is in such a condition, Mr. Cox alleges, that it is unsuitable for travel. He asks that the township trustee order that the road be improved and properly maintained. The suit was filed Saturday morning.

BANQUET ENDS WEEK OF FUN FOR THE BOY SCOUTS

Fifty-four scouts, scout masters and speakers gathered at the domestic science hall on east Washington street Saturday night and enjoyed the spread which was laid by the scouts. The tables which extended the length of the hall were covered with all good things to eat which were enjoyed by all present.

This banquet was the final event of a week of fun which has been enjoyed by the boy scouts of this city under the supervision of Prof. H. A. Henderson and the leadership of several of the members of the Y. M. C. A. of DePauw university. The boys of the week of fun to Mr. Henderson and members of the Y. M. C. A. who kindly shortened their own vacation in order to see that the scouts had a good time.

Speeches were made to the scouts by several citizens and by students from the university. Judge Highland of the Putnam Circuit Court made a short address to the boys concerning the scout movement. Another speaker was Rev. B. D. Beck, pastor of the Locust street church.

LET ME TELL YOU, MR. FARMER, HOW TO MAKE SOME MONEY

I have a plan that helps you to make a lot of extra money during your spare time. Your friends will not be glad to buy, but thank you. It is a proposition that interests every farmer. ## POLITICAL GOSSIP

[BY WILLIS S. THOMPSON.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 30.—
"Hurrah for the ticket. Everybody for the ticket is the sentiment that will rule the party in the coming campaign, no matter who may be nominated."

This announcement is made officially from the headquarters of the state republican machine of Indiana and given full and unqualified approval by the official party organs.
"No matter who may be nominated."
With one or two exceptions the candidates who will appear in the primary have worn the machine collar for so long that the hair is worn from their necks an inch under the skin and almost to the crowns of their heads.
They are like the oldest fire horses who rush into the full harness at the first tap of the gong. It is a mechanical habit. As their press agents say in the literature sent out from expensively maintained headquarters,
"they have been trained all their lives as faithful workers in the republican party."

To the machine's "hurrah for the ticket" should be added "and the same steam roller that the republican national committee used if any progressives get in our way."

Since the old Mulhall organization has lined up as chipper and as brazenly as ever for Jim Watson, and since the millionaires who own the public utilities of Indiana have put up their signs as the boosters of Harry New,
whose political education, according to the dates they officially announce, embraces the Dudley episodes and the notorious republican primary roberies of 1912, the state republican machine believes that its feet cannot possibly slip in "putting over" a full ticket to its liking. So it feels perfectly safe in its "hurrah for the ticket" in advance. If the republican machine's attempt to destroy the state-wide primary law should fail, then with the expert primary manipulators in charge they have no fear of results. In either primary or convention they will feel perfectly secure.
Why should they not feel so? Are they not the same men and the same machine that had more to do than any other state organization in handling the Chicago Convention in 1912, and were not their own "Captain" Harry S. New and James Eli Watson in charge when they were driving the progressives out of the Chicago convention?

The weakest part of this position of the standpaters is where they forget that the progressives left the republican party to fight for principles that are more vital than the life or success of any purpose actuating any self-serving political machine. Their weak attempt to fool the voters by concentrating attention on the senatorial fight and enabling the machine to slip over a bunch of state candidates to their liking, to the liking of the millionaire gentlemen of public utility fame, is not going to get far in the race.

It is already apparent that what the machine wants and what these public utility millionaires want, is to capture the state house. If the casual newspaper reader will reflect just a moment and make a neutral analysis of the means by which most of the millions owned by these public utility magnates were procured, it will be easy to explain why they have now openly announced their affiliation with the corrupt state republican machine, and to understand why they wish to control all the state offices.

When their purpose is fully comprehended it is just as easy to understand why the voters are going to see that these grasping gentry are going to be kept right where the people put them in 1912 and again in 1914. The only safe place for some people is where you are sure they will have no chance to do wrong.

As one man remarked the other day, "this sham battle between Jim Watson and Harry New is funny. It is staged to keep the public mind off the other thing they are trying to put across. They want the state ticket.
The difference between Jim Watson and Harry New is the same as the difference between Cannon and Penrose. So what is there to quarrel about?"

In accordance with the statutes as fixed by the Legislature of 1915, at the close of the year Charles A.
Greathouse, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will have turned into the State Treasury $5,150.24 surplus, after paying all expenses in the manuscript division of the state department of public instruction.

This is the largest amount that has ever been turned over from this department to the State Treasury in any one year. Under the operation of the new law all money received in the State Treasury since September 30 from the teachers manuscript department shall be accredited to the State Tuition Fund. Mr. Greathouse stated that in his judgment the legislature of 1917 should change this part of the law passed by the 1915 legislature and require the surplus money turned over to the state tuition fund to be placed in the Teachers' Retirement Fund.

Mr. Greathouse stated that under the operation of this law all teachers desiring to have their manuscripts graded by the state department of public instruction shall pay a fee of seventy-five cents in order that the manuscripts can be graded and licenses issued. Under the operation of the old law the teachers had to pay one dollar. He further stated that since the teachers were required to pay the fee for taking the examination when any surplus remains that such surplus should be turned over to the Pension Fund to become a part thereof. It is his intention to recommend this to the Governor and to the next legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 1.—A good delegation of Indianapolis democrats went to Lafayette Thursday night to attend the twentieth annual banquet of the Jackson Club of that city. It was the most successful affair of the sort this club has ever

"pulled off."

The Lafayette Jackson Club is one of the best political organizations in the state and it has to its credit some of the very best results in any part of the state. The membership is made up of hustlers. Their spirit was shown in the number and the enthusiasm of those present at this banquet.

The banquet and the speaking were in the beautiful banquet hall on the top floor of the new Fowler hotel and extra tables were placed in the corridor to try and take care of the crowd.
Even then the balconies were full and "second tables" had to be resorted to that all the crowd might be ban-queted.

Congressman John A. M. Adair, who is at present the only announced candidate for governor on the democratic side, and who, if nominated, will no doubt be elected by one of the largest majorities ever given any candidate for the same office, was the first speaker and he was given an ovation when introduced by Toastmaster George F. Durgan, as "the only candidate at present seeking the nomination for governor on the democratic ticket." Mr. Adair made a speech that kept the crowd cheering with wild enthusiasm most of the time. He expressed regrets that Governor Ralston had been called back to Indianapolis and so was forced to disappoint the "dinner party" in not speaking to them. He told of the excellent work of the Ralston administration and that of Woodrow Wilson and predicted not a plurality but a large majority for both a democratic president and a democratic state ticket in 1916.

Senator Kern spoke chiefly of the work of the national administration but referred to the administration of state affairs such that a democrat seeking any office in Indiana in 1916 had but to stand on what this state administration has done and receive the public indorsement.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, was the last speaker and he paid particular attention to national issues. Like Senator Kern and Congressman Adair he was given a most hearty welcome when introduced and throughout his talk he was cheered most heartily as he told of the good things done since the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson and wondered what under the sun the Cannon, the Pen-roses, the Barnesses, the Watsons, the Harry News and the rest of them are going to talk about in 1916 that will interest the people.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 4.—
People who have been complaining because Charles Warren Fairbanks, candidate for presidential honors, and Edwin P. Morrow, recently defeated as republican candidate for Governor of Kentucky, gave no hint at their Indianapolis speeches of what will be the issue presented by their party in 1916. Mr. Morrow made his late disastrous campaign on the "full dinner pail." He is trying to forget it, so he spent his time talking about what a great man is Charles Warren Fairbanks, and Charles Warren Fairbanks in turn told us the republican party is the only one that knows how to govern the country. He produced no specifications. Neither of the speakers said a word about the faithful Indiana boys who manned the road roller at Chicago in 1912 until they drove 4,000,000 voters to the progressives. Nor did they tell us how the same bunch is aboard the same steam roller in Indiana today, in full control of the state machine.

But why look to these gentlemen when Chairman Will H. Hays of the republican state central machine was there to speak. He is the official spokesman and he ought to know what he is talking about. For instance, this opening sentence ought to settle
it.

"I have in my life no greater satisfaction, nor do I know of any greater credit, than to be a part of that aristocracy of intellect and character called the republican party of Indiana."

And when he said that we are told that Ran Butler, Bud Gibson, Joe Kealing, Alvy Rucker, Jake Finklestein, Judge Jimmie Collins, Bat Masterson and some other distinguished as members of the faculty of the late
"school of perjury" indulged in tremendous cheering. For if "Ran" is black he has always been able to deliver the darktown wards at election time and is this not "aristocracy of intellect and character?" "Bud" usually confines himself to one or two precincts but he testified in court that he is good for 150 illegal votes any election day, and that he worked for Jimmie Collins! This has not been denied. When a recent grand jury returned indictments against 128 individuals, each charged with 48 serious criminal offenses, was it any evidence that Alvy Rucker and Jimmy Collins could not qualify as members of the "aristocracy of intellect," simply because these 6144 criminal charges have now been reduced to some half dozen indictments against policemen for assault and battery?

But listen to the next sentence from the chairman of the "aristocracy of intellect."

"We proceed," he says, "in that consistent humility so commendable individually and so appropriate collectively a meekness compatible with the dignity of our professions and the incalculable importance of the task before us."

Think of the "meekness" and humility of this depleted army of intellectual giants. One's mind involuntarily goes back to the 1912 Chicago convention, following the famous Taft primaries in Indiana, and recalls the "toot toot" with which these modest gentlemen kept the roller moving until nothing was left in the hall but
"that aristocracy of intellect and character," with Harry New, Jim Watson and Joe Kealing in full command. But listen as Chairman Hays proceeds:

"Let us remember that we do not play politics for party pelf, but practice patriotic principles."

Somebody in the audience who was not a full member of the "aristocracy of intellect" said something about the couple of millions of general fund debts which the state republican administration left or democrats to pay, but the only attention given this interruption was to put out the rude ignoramus. And Mr. Hays proceeded:
"The present day problems are ours. They are most serious in their complexity and their far-reaching consequences—and we view the alleged efforts of certain well-meaning gentlemen at Washington to bring about the solution with no great degree of equanimity or satisfaction."

Isn't that a gem in literature and public confession? It sounds like Secretary Jack Henley helper the chairman to write it. But who ever thought for a moment that the "aristocracy of intellect and character" called the republican party of Indiana" looked upon a lot of good democrats in office with any "great degree of equanimity of satisfaction?" Deeply impressed with this intellectual treat, we capture this concluding paragraph:

"The republicans of Indiana (otherwise that aristocracy of intellect and character which does not play politics for party pelf) will perform their part, and as we go about this work let us act, with full realization of the fact that we are about a king's business—let us remember that the party's welfare is above all things else—all that the country, itself, may endure."

Oh, glory! Think of it! Will H.
Hays ought to know, being official machine spokesman. He salutes the king who rules from his Lake Forest home, which is eminently proper. An inside tip says, that Charlie Seffrit kicked up an awful rumpus because these little fire-side talks indulged in at republican machine headquarters about "party welfare above all things else, no matter what the country has to endure," are being repeated on the outside. He is said to have told the leaders of "that aristocracy of intellect" that is so fond of sending the road roller over mere voters, that they must stop this sort of public noise.
Seffrit imagines the voters don't like
it.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 4.—
Judge A. B. Anderson named L. Ert Slack on new year's day as the successor of Frank C. Dailey as United States Attorney for the district of Indiana. This appointment was made to hold until Mr. Slack's regular commission arrives from Washington.
This will probably be some time during the first week of the new year.
The appointment by the court was necessary in order that Mr. Slack might be present and acting at the opening of the new term of court and the action was taken at the suggestion of the Attorney General, the final commission simply being delayed until the senate can confirm.

Mr. Slack received many new years greetings from all over the state upon assuming office, and his appointment is looked upon as one of the strongest the two Senators have made in Indiana.

Frank C. Dailey upon retiring, at once entered the firm of Miller, Dailey & Thompson. This is reorganization of the old firm of Miller, Shirley, Miller & Thompson. Cassius C. Shirley retires from practice at least for a time. W. H. H. Miller remains counsel for the firm and the members are now Samuel D. Miller, Frank C. Dailey and William H.
Thompson.

Ernest Guy Coons, who owned the building which was occupied by the Greencastle Garage Co., the roof of which recently caved in, causing hundreds of dollars of damage to the automobiles which were stored in it, has sold the building to James I.
Nelson of this city. The consideration was $2600. Mr. Nelson plans to start re-building the once.
